23 Oct. | 8.30 — 9.30
Registration of participants Courtroom “Gabriele De Rosa” — Building B
Welcome coffee

23 Oct. | 9.30
Greetings Authorities
Courtroom “Gabriele De Rosa” — Building D Aurelio Tommasetti, Rector, University of Salerno (Italy), Maurizio Sibillo, Dean, Department of Human, Education and Philo-sophical Sciences, Domenico Apicella, President, ADISURC Authority of Right to Study, Campania Region, Italy, Vincenzo Sessa, Mayor, Comune di Fisciano — Michele Albanese, General Director, Banca Monte Pruno

Welcome speeches
Giovanna Truda, Scientific Coordinator of International network Cultural Changes, Inequalities and Sustainable Development (CcISuD) — Emiliana Mangone, Director of International Centre for Studies and Resear-ch on Mediterranean: ICER (ICSR MK) — Cyril Masselot, International Coordinator of INTI, USR 3124 MSHE du CNRS, Université Bourgogne Franche-Comté (UBFC, CNRS, France) — Jean-Jacques Girardot, PhD in Economics and President of Scientific Council of the International Network of Territorial Intelligence (INTI)

Keynote speaker
Aldo Bonomi, Sociologist, Director of Consortium Aaster (Agents of Territorial Development), Sustainable Development in the Society of Flows: The Role of Territorial Actors

23 Oct. | 14.30 — 16.00
Topic C — Vulnerability, resilience of territories and populations
Courtroom “2/3 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Philippe Woloszyn, UMR 5319 CNRS, Bordeaux Montaigne (France) — Maria Helena Botero, Universidad del Rosario (Colombia), Territorial Resilience Facing the War: The people who resist from their territory in the Province of Léopoldville Colombia — Roberto Gerundo, Maria Izzo & Miriam Ceni, University of Salerno (Italy), Resilient capillary regeneration. The case of the municipality of Castel Volturno — Veronica Lo Presti & Maria Dentale, University of Rome “Sapienza” (Italy), For an analysis of social capital: the binomial “vulnerability - resilience”; in three territories of Southern Italy — Osila Filo, University of Pecs (Hungary), Comparision of physical activity and labour market activities Piscitelli & Giovanna Truda, University of Naples “Federico II” (Italy), University of Salerno (Italy), Life satisfaction and the Equitable and sustainable Well-being (Bes) domains: an analysis of the Italian regions — Roberto Gerundo, Gabriella Grazioso, Michele Grimoldi, Maria Veronica Izzo & Alessandra Marra, University of Salerno (Italy), Risk perception in urban planning to increase the levels of resilience of the territory — Philippe Woloszyn, UMR 5319 CNRS, Bordeaux Montaigne (France), Wave synthesis of the mechanisms of solidarity — Roberto Gerundo & Carlo Gerundo, University of Salerno (Italy), University of Naples “Federico II” (Italy), Proximity equalization as a tool to trigger resilient widespread regeneration process

16.00 — Coffee break

23 Oct. | 16.30 — 18.30
Topic A+B — Territorial observation: social-technical tools of territorial observation for the collective intelligence — Participative territorial governance, planning of social-ecological innovation, territories and networks
Courtroom “2/3 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Cyril Masselot, USR 3124 MSHE du CNRS, Université Bourgogne Franche-Comté (UBFC, CNRS, France) — Antonia Autuori & Carola Carazzzone, Fondazione della Comunità Salernitana Onlus (Italy), Communi-ty foundations: a new territorial actor for participatory planning and co-design of social economy — Clotilde Cicatiello, Université de Grenoble (France), Avrue: empirical application of territorial participatory intelligence and participatory territorial governance — Monica Maglio, University of Salerno (Italy), Governance and Regional Smart Specialization Strategies of Southern Italy — Pasquale Persico, University of Salerno (Italy), Multiscalar, generational and inter-temporal strategic governance in integrated parks management programs — Bahljeddine Hachemaoui & Jean-Jacques Girardot, Université Abderrahmane Mira Route Targua, Ouzemour (Algérie), Conseiller Scientifique INTI (France), Application of tetraclass analysis on the results of the “quality of life” survey in the city of Bejaia — Roberto Gerundo, Michele Grimoldi, Antonio Iovine, Federica Caprino, Luisa Spisso & Stella De Vivo, University of Salerno (Italy), Methodological proposal of a procedure supporting decisions for territorial risk mitigation — Jean-Jacques Girardot & Serge Ormoux, Conseiller Scientifique INTI (France), Université de Bourgogne

Franche-Comté (France), Promote dialogue between the humanities and the sciences of ecology and the environment

23 Oct. | 14.30 — 16.00
Topic C — Vulnerability, resilience of territories and populations
Courtroom “1 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Philippe Woloszyn, UMR 5319 CNRS, Bordeaux Montaigne (France) — Maria Helena Botero, Universidad del Rosario (Colombia), Territorial Resilience Facing the War: The people who resist from their territory in the Province of Léopoldville Colombia — Roberto Gerundo, Maria Izzo & Miriam Ceni, University of Salerno (Italy), Resilient capillary regeneration. The case of the municipality of Castel Volturno — Veronica Lo Presti & Maria Dentale, University of Rome “Sapienza” (Italy), For an analysis of social capital: the binomial “vulnerability - resilience”; in three territories of Southern Italy — Osila Filo, University of Pecs (Hungary), Comparision of physical activity and labour market activities Piscitelli & Giovanna Truda, University of Naples “Federico II” (Italy), University of Salerno (Italy), Life satisfaction and the Equitable and sustainable Well-being (Bes) domains: an analysis of the Italian regions — Roberto Gerundo, Gabriella Grazioso, Michele Grimoldi, Maria Veronica Izzo & Alessandra Marra, University of Salerno (Italy), Risk perception in urban planning to increase the levels of resilience of the territory — Philippe Woloszyn, UMR 5319 CNRS, Bordeaux Montaigne (France), Wave synthesis of the mechanisms of solidarity — Roberto Gerundo & Carlo Gerundo, University of Salerno (Italy), University of Naples “Federico II” (Italy), Proximity equalization as a tool to trigger resilient widespread regeneration process

16.00 — Coffee break

23 Oct. | 16.30 — 18.30
Topic E — Gender, territories and sustain-nable development
Courtroom “1 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Nanta Novello Paglianti, Université de Bourgogne Franche-Comté (France) — Chiara D’Auria, University of Salerno (Italy), Women emancipation in China: historical perspectives and empirical evidence betwee-en tradition and modernity — Lorendana Incarnato, Maria Rosaria Pelizzari & Clotilde Cicatiello, Università di Salerno (Italy), Innovation, Development and Gender issues in Research Organizations: the Gender Equality Plan of the University of Salerno — Nanta Novello Paglianti, Université de Bourgogne Franche-Comté (France), Talking about yourself in the Twittosphere: gender in the prism of politics — Fabiana Quatrano, University of Salerno (Italy), Centrality of the person for a new paradigm of sustainable development — Stella Marin, University of Donato, LUMSA of Rome (Italy), The evolution of the international documents in fighting violence against women

24 Oct. | 9.00 — 11.00
Topic C — Vulnerability, resilience of territories and populations
Courtroom “14 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Folco Camigalli, LUMSA of Rome (Italy) — Anne Marilyn KOUADIO, Ecole Normale Supérieure d’Abidjan (Côte d’Ivoire), Adjunct-Abidjan “black market” sex workers: between social vulnerability and resilience — Folco Camigalli, LUMSA of Rome (Italy), Take charge of the invisible. A new collective action for homeless people — Guénaël Devil-let, Pierre Ozer, Pascal Simoens & Pierre Comte Lige University (Belgium), From cooperation to co-construction: toward a response to social vulnerability in territories with a high level of exposure to natural disaster — Daniela Sica, cornella Malandrino & Maria Rosaria Pelizzari, University of Salerno (Italy), Gender equality in Italy: a critical analysis — Cézar Gélvez, Liège Université (Belgium), Preservation of the environment indigenous peoples? — Rita Cutini & Daniela Pompei, University “Dante Alighieri” of Reggio Calabria (Italy), Comunità di Sant’Egil-dio, Rome, Italy, The Humanitarian corridors: a legal and safe alternative to the deaths in the Mediterranean sea — Antonella Golin, University of Molise (Italy), Italy that resists. The inner areas as laboratories of social-terri-torial rebirth
11.00 — Coffee break
24 Oct. \ 11.30 — 13.30
Topic D — Fundamental rights, inequalities and protection systems
Courtroom “14 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair: Giovanna Truda, University of Salerno (Italy) \ Cristina Sofia, University of Rome “Sapienza” (Italy), The widespread reception of migrants in Rome. Experiences of hospitality and integration in comparison \ Valeria Tevere, University of Salerno (Italy), The violence against women as a serious violation of fundamental rights \ Mariarosaria Coluccio, University of Salerno (Italy), The rights of the rights of Latin America. The theology of liberation of Leonardo Boff \ Alessandra Petrone & Lucia Picarella, University of Salerno (Italy), Universidade Católica de Colômbia (Colômbia), The protection of new rights in a Kantian cosmopolitan perspective \ Antonino Astone, University of Messina (Italy), Informed consent to health care and early treatment provisions \ Alberto Marchese, University of Messina (Italy), Protection of fundamental rights in the legal regulation of bio-banks \ Aurora Vesto, University “Dante Alighieri” of Reggio Calabria (Italy), “End of life” and self-determination \ Antonio Sposito, Presidente ANS, Associazione nazionale sociologi Campania, The Regional Department of Campania (National Sociological Association) & The Regional Law 13/2017 “The Sociology Service of the Territory”

24 Oct. \ 9.00 — 11.00
Topic B — Participative territorial governance, planning of social-ecological innovation, territories and networks
Courtroom “9 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Bianca Miedes, University of Huelva (Spain) \ Alfonso Piscitelli & Enrico Sacco, University of Naples “Federico II” (Italy), L’intelligenza collettiva nelle strategie di crescita e sopravvivenza imprenditoriale \ Maria Rosaria Sessa & Ornella Malandrino, University of Salerno (Italy), The role of APEA for the development of a territory: analysis of state of the art and prospects in Italy \ Bianca Miedes & Fernandez Borroto, University of Huelva (Spain), The role of emotions in the regeneration of the human agency in the framework of the socio-ecological transition.

Implications for the development of territorial intelligence \ Fiorella Vinci, eCampus University, Como (Italy), The University’s functions in territorial development: the case of wine production in the Conero area \ Annalisia Frigenti & Giuseppa De Mai, MIUR (Italy), Schools that differentiate... make the difference! \ Alessandra Sannella, Università di Cassino e del Lazio Meridionale (Italy), Health and sustainability systems. Actions and strategies for well-being
24 Oct. \ 11.30 — 13.30
Topic F — Cultural changes, communication, knowledge
Courtroom “9 DISUFF” — Building C
Chair — Giovanna Russo, University of Bologna (Italy) \ Gaia Peruzzi & Raffaele Lombardi, University of Rome “Sapienza”, Solidarity-based communities, education, cultural change: the milestones of the innovation of the territory. A theoretical-empirical reflection grounded on the experience of education of Executive and Leaders of the Third Sector in the Southern of Italy \ Giovanna Russo, University of Bologna (Italy), Between resistance and resilience: experiences of asylum seekers and acceptance tools \ Antinea Ambretti & Maria Anna Formisa-no, University of Salerno (Italy), Prosociality and traditional games \ Francesco Pira, University of Messina (Italy), The challenge of collective intelligence in the era of disinforma-tion \ Rita Cutini, University “Dante Alighieri” of Reggio Calabria (Italy), Insegnare la complessità: la formazione degli assistenti sociali di fronte alle sfide dell’immigrazione \ Domenico Apicella, University of Salerno (Italy), Tourism as a source of integration and territorial development: a way to increasing internationalization \ Natacha Cyrulinik, MCF HDR Aix-Marseille Université (France), The documentary jo cities change the repre-sentations \ Antonia Cava, Gaetana Cava & Assunta Penna, University of Messina (Italy), University of Granada (Spain), Televisio-sion, culture and identity. The case of asian communities in Messina

Conference closure
24 Oct. \ 15.30 — 18.00
Scientific Committee of INTI
Courtroom “4 DISUFF” — Building C

23-24 Oct. 2018
University of Salerno
Collective Intelligence & Innovative Territories.
Transitions, Cultural Changes & Inequalities